LEGAL LINE · ESTABLISHED LAYER

Strikes on a railway platform with passenger trains, on a family car and on the grounds of a school dormitory, with no military objective identified, engage Rome Statute art. 8(2)(b)(i) and (ii); the Commission of Inquiry has already found the 2022 strike on Kramatorsk station indiscriminate and this pattern of attacks to constitute war crimes (A/77/533, A/HRC/52/62).

ASK · THIS WEEK

Name the Dnipro railway platform (29 Oct), Sloviansk (30 Oct) and the Koziatyn dormitory (1 Nov) to the Commission of Inquiry and in the Third Committee; ask the HRMMU to verify these casualties. Treat the Oleshky evacuation as a first step, not a precedent of silence: call for regular humanitarian missions and ICRC access to the residents who stayed. Confirm ballistic-capable air defence before winter.

IF RUSSIA SAYS…

"Only military facilities and infrastructure" (V. Nebenzia, Security Council, 9 Oct) → a platform with two passenger trains, a family car and a school dormitory are civilian objects; Russia has named no military objective at any of them. "The Kyiv regime blocks Oleshky" → Russia occupies the town; the duty to feed and evacuate its people falls on the occupying power (Fourth Geneva Convention).
