LEGAL LINE · ESTABLISHED LAYER

Strikes on a city market at midday, on streets of private houses and apartment buildings, and on a school and a kindergarten, with no military objective identified, engage Rome Statute art. 8(2)(b)(i) and (ii); the Commission of Inquiry has found Russian attacks on residential areas and civilian infrastructure to constitute war crimes (A/77/533, A/HRC/52/62).

ASK · THIS WEEK

Name the Chornomorsk market (11 Nov), Zaporizhzhia (13 Nov) and the Pavlohrad school and kindergarten (14 Nov) in the Third Committee and to the Commission of Inquiry; ask the HRMMU to verify these casualties for its November update. At the Security Council, ask Russia what military objective it attacked in each place, during talks it attended.

IF RUSSIA SAYS…

"We do not want a temporary truce, we want peace for many years and centuries" (D. Peskov, 16 Nov) → the night before, Russia launched 158 drones at Ukraine; a ceasefire is what would stop the killing while talks go on. "Only military facilities" → a city market at midday, a street of private houses and a kindergarten are civilian objects; Russia has named no military objective at any of them.
