تشورنومورسك: ضربة على سوق مزدحمة عند الظهيرة

Around midday on 11 November 2026, the second day of the US-mediated talks in Abu Dhabi, a Russian strike hit the market in the centre of Chornomorsk, a Black Sea port city of about 50,000 south of Odesa, while it was full of people. Four people were killed — one at the scene, three who died in hospital — and 11 were hurt, 9 of them hospitalised and 4 in critical condition. Market stalls, homes and cars were damaged.

ما هو مسجّل حتى الآن

The head of the Odesa regional military administration said the strike hit the market in the city centre while it was crowded, damaging homes and cars nearby.

The State Emergency Service said market stalls and a private house were damaged and a fire broke out; it was put out before it spread. Nine firefighters and two engines worked at the site.

The Air Force had reported a jet-powered drone heading for the city; the authorities have not said whether the market was hit by a drone, by debris or by another weapon.
