DES POURPARLERS À LA TABLE, DES FRAPPES SUR LE TERRAIN : 9–11 NOVEMBRE

From 9 to 11 November 2026 — the eve and the two days of the first US-mediated talks between Ukraine, the United States and Russia in nine months — Russian attacks killed at least 19 civilians and injured 68 across Ukraine, by the count of Ukrainian authorities. Over the two nights of the talks Russia launched 325 drones, an Iskander-M ballistic missile and a Kh-59/69 guided missile, hitting an infrastructure facility in Odesa, an enterprise in Dnipro, energy sites in four regions and a market in Chornomorsk.

L'ESSENTIEL

The talks did not stop the strikes. On the eve and the two days of the Abu Dhabi talks Russian attacks killed at least 19 civilians and injured 68 (Ukrainian authorities; preliminary).

Day one, 10 November: a strike on an enterprise in Dnipro killed three men aged 56, 56 and 36; a man aged 69 was killed at a bus stop in Odesa region. Day two, 11 November: a strike on the crowded market in Chornomorsk killed 4 and hurt 11; in Yahotyn, Kyiv region, repeat drone strikes killed 2 rescuers putting out a fire.

Russia said so in advance. The Kremlin said Russia was "against a ceasefire that will give Ukrainians a respite" (30 Oct 2026). The talks ended with an agreement on a prisoner exchange and no ceasefire.

CONSISTENT WITH THE RECORD: THE STRIKES CONTINUED THROUGH THE TALKS

From 9 to 11 November 2026 Russian attacks killed at least 19 civilians and injured 68 across Ukraine; Russia launched 325 drones and two missiles over the two nights of the talks (Ukrainian authorities; Air Force).

Ce que l'affirmation concède : That Russia chose to keep striking while it negotiated.

POUR ÊTRE JUSTE

Many of the strikes hit energy infrastructure, which Russia says serves the military.

The intended targets of the individual strikes have not been confirmed by investigators or an independent body.

The counts are preliminary and come from one party to the conflict; UN verification is pending.
