ZAPORIJIA, 13 NOVEMBRE : UN GARÇON DE 17 ANS SOUS LES DÉCOMBRES

At about 06:30 on 13 November 2026 two Russian strikes hit a neighbourhood of private houses in Zaporizhzhia. A boy aged 17 was killed; four people, among them a boy aged 10, were pulled injured from the rubble. In the afternoon a Russian strike hit two five-storey apartment buildings and houses in the same district: by the evening 50 people were injured there, 8 of them children, and a rescuer was killed while clearing the rubble. Overnight Russia had launched 117 drones at Ukraine: strikes killed 2 people in Odesa, injured 6 in an apartment building in Rivne and set fire to a medical facility in Kyiv.
